

Ramblings of a New Fire Chief

Presented by the Lakes Region Mutual Fire Aid Association
Training & Education Division

Dates: Tuesday, July 11, 2023

Time: 18:30 - 21:30

Location: Lakes Region
Community College
379 Belmont Road
Laconia, NH

Tim Joubert has spent his entire fire service career in the Lakes Region. During this program, he will share his thoughts, beliefs, and lessons learned from his experiences in these roles. Throughout the night, Chief Joubert hopes to generate interactive discussions focusing on fire department culture, training, current fire service trends, and leadership.

Registration

via the link or QR Code

Questions:

Lieutenant Erin Hannafin

ehannafin@lrmfa.org

Instructor: Chief Tim Joubert

Tim Joubert has spent over 20 years in the Lakes Region Fire Service, beginning as a call firefighter for the Ashland Fire Department, then a career FF/EMT in Plymouth, and over 15 years in Tilton-Northfield Fire & EMS. The last seven spent as Deputy Chief in charge of Operations, Fire Prevention, and Training. In November of 2022, Tim was named the Chief of the Laconia Fire Department. Chief Joubert has a bachelor's degree in education, is certified as an Executive Fire officer from the National Fire Academy and has received the New Hampshire Chief Officer II designation. Tim is currently enrolled at Columbia Southern University and is working on a master's in emergency management.