

Responding to Calls to Individuals with Autism

WHEN: February 21, 2018 1900-2100

WHERE: Lakes Region Mutual Fire Aid
62 Communications Drive Laconia, NH 03246

Presented by: Chief Tim Stevens, Hill Police Department

ABOUT: Individuals with Developmental Disabilities are 7 times more likely to have encounters with Law Enforcement. Failing to identify individuals with Autism has led to catastrophic results and deaths costing agencies millions. Proper training and identification are essential. This presentation gives 1st Responders tools to identify, respond appropriately, and possibly save the lives of innocent individuals with Autism who may not comply with simple instructions. This is a must have training for all 1st Responders.

RSVP: to LRMFA Training Coordinator Erin Hannafin ehannafin@lrmfa.org